Saturday, 01. March 2014

Sleep as long as you like and do whatever you want. You will need this day to recover – there is much more to come... We have organised for you: Cologne City Museum (meeting point Zeughausstr. 1) at 1:00 pm, audio guided tour (in English, French or German language) about the history of Cologne. Entry 5,00 Euro at the museum. At 3:00 pm (meeting point IBIS Hotel) - guided city sightseeing tour or a visit to IBZ Gimborn at Gimborn Castle.

C	Sunday, 2. March 2014 10:00 am ride on the line 15 from Barbarossaplatz to Köln-Longerich a small suburb of Cologne, there we will watch one of the "Veedelszüge" - these are smaller parades by different local carnival groups in some parts of Cologne. This gives you a hint of the original local carnival celebration and normally no tourist gets a chance to see this. 4:00 pm back in to town or Carnival party in a marquee in Köln-Longerich. Tickets and information will be available at the hotel. Costs 10,00 Euro for food and drink
D	Monday, 3. March 2014 10:00 am Meeting point Stolkgasse/An den Dominikanern to watch the world famous Cologne Carnival Parade. During the day we will provide our guests with "Kölsch", mulled wine, hot soup, coffee, hot sausages and more "Kölsch" at moderate cost for food and drinks. The parade will be finished at about 6:00 pm.
	Tuesday, 4th March 2014 8:00 to 10:00 am breakfast and farewell at the IBIS hotel.
